Dear Business Leader,

Tri-County Mental Health Services, Inc., together with the Northland Coalition, the Missouri Department of Mental Health, Division of Alcohol and Drug Abuse, and Missouri's Youth Adult Alliance, is proud to support Youth With Vision. Youth With Vision is a student lead organization made up of high school leaders from throughout Clay, Platte and Ray Counties. Members are committed to fighting the devastating effects of alcohol and drug abuse in their schools and communities. On Tuesday, November 17, Youth With Vision will be hosting BUNCO MANIA, a fundraising event designed to raise community awareness and support Youth With Vision's efforts to reduce alcohol and drug abuse in their schools and communities.

It is our hope that you will join in making this event a success. BUNCO MANIA 2009 is an exciting opportunity for area agencies, businesses and organizations to support local efforts to reduce alcohol and drug abuse while gaining exposure to hundreds of potential customers. Monetary and in-kind donations will help defray the costs associated with, BUNCO MANIA and are much appreciated.

There are many levels and opportunities for sponsorship. BUNCO MANIA is an exciting opportunity for you to support local efforts to reduce alcohol and drug abuse while gaining exposure. Checks should be made payable to Youth With Vision c/o Tri-County Mental Health Services, Inc. Please do not hesitate to contact Ryan McElhaney, Youth With Vision Adult Sponsor with any questions at ryanm@tri-countymhs.org, 816-877-0496 and visit our website at buncomania.com or youthwithvisionkc.org to see what we are all about!

Sincerely,

Youth With Vision
